PRESS RELEASE

Newlat and Carnini Rejoin the Parmalat Group

Parmalat S.p.A. communicates that it has been informed today of a decision of the Court of Parma on 26 September 2006 lifting the protective sequestration orders over the partnership capital of Newlat S.r.l. and the shares of Carnini S.p.A. The Court issued these orders on 27 January 2004 and 2 February 2004, respectively.

The orders were issued in the context of an investigation conducted by the Court of Parma into fictitious disposals involving the two above-mentioned companies. The purpose of these fictitious transactions, which impaired the asset value of the old Parmalat S.p.A. under Extraordinary Administration, was to circumvent antitrust laws.

As a result of this decision, the new Parmalat S.p.A. has regained full ownership of Newlat S.r.l. and Carnini S.p.A. at no cost to the Company.

Newlat S.r.l., which is based in Reggio Emilia, manufactures and distributes dairy products. In 2005, it had revenues of approximately 150 million euros.

Carnini S.p.A., which is based in Villa Guardia (CO), is also a manufacturer and distributor of dairy products. In 2005, it reported revenues of approximately 45 million euros.

Regaining full title to the partnership capital of Newlat S.r.l. will enable Parmalat S.p.A. to comply with the ruling issued on 30 June 2005 by the Italian Antitrust Authorities with reference to the breach of the Antitrust regulation by the "old" Parmalat in 1999. The measures prescribed by the Antitrust Authority, which call for the Company to relinquish its dominant position in the fresh-milk market and restore truly competitive conditions in that market, require Parmalat S.p.A. to sell the matese and torre in pietra brands on the open market, along with certain production facilities owned by Newlat S.r.l.
